

YOUR WEDDING IN PROVENCE

Capelongue, Bonnieux

BONNIEUX – CHARMING PROVENCE

Bonnieux climbs up on the Petit Luberon. It is seen in the distance from the road, before all its brilliance is revealed.

This village full of history seduces a large number of international tourists who come to roam its alleys. One wonders about this church which seems to dominate the village and from where one assumes a magnificent view of the Monts de Vaucluse and the beautiful village of Lacoste. It should be noted that a second church exists lower, a rare thing for a small village.

By following the heritage circuit, you will learn a little more about its past. For the most gourmet, a stop at the bakery museum is essential, all the facets of bread making, tools, cereals and clothing, are revealed to you, what make you want to bake yourself a baguette !

The art of living in the Provençal style; this is all that reflects this lively village throughout the year by the local life and the many animations, not to mention its attractive market organized every Friday morning on a part of the center.

And when the cicadas get involved, we fall completely under the spell of Bonnieux...
